BONANZA!

TO THE PEOPLE AT LARGE!

In our advertisements to the People, it is well known that we have offered inducements in the way of low prices, that have defied competition; and at no time have we become personal; but we notice in last week's edition of the REGISTER, that a concern (or its manager), known as the st. l. o. & s. co., has referred to us as the "Braganza." We will now do

A Little Bragging!

And will say: 1st. That we buy our goods for spot cash, are satisfied with a small profit, and therefore sell a great many goods; keep our stock fresh all the time, and are not compelled to auction our Goods off to sell them.

2nd. As we have not run our "concern" into the ground by trying to sell Goods at enormous profits, and by other means become unpopular with our customers, we are not compelled to say to those in our employ, "You must buy your goods at our store or we will discharge you!" We will now

OFFER TWO PROPOSITIONS!

1st. We will deposit ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS in the hands of any responsible citizen, if the "concern" referred to above will place the like amount in the same hands, that we have as fine Goods in Boots, Shoes, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Dry Goods and Notions, as this "concern" has.

2d. We will deposit ANOTHER One Hundred Dollars, with a like amount from the "concern," that we can sell the goods above named at less figures and make a profit, than said "concern" can. The winner to donate the prize to some charitable purpose. This proposition is open to all.

We will offer to-morrow the cheapest lot of
